

CAST Imaging Analyzer End-User License Agreement

This product (the “CAST Imaging Analyzer”) is downloadable from the CAST Imaging website as may be provided by CAST from time to time, and is protected by copyright © 2024 CAST. The CAST Imaging Analyzer may only be used in connection with the terms of privacy and security available at the URL: <https://www.castsoftware.com/privacy> and with the specific commercial terms (scope, price and duration of the Services) set out in the order for the subscription to CAST Imaging on Cloud (the “Services”) that was placed with CAST (each an “Order”). The party who will be installing the CAST Imaging Analyzer will be referred to herein as the “End User.”

By downloading the CAST Imaging Analyzer and clicking on “Accept” below, the End User agrees to the following terms:

The CAST Imaging Analyzer is a technical software component which includes some third-party components, including a Java runtime, released under the GNU General Public License with Class Path Exception: <https://openjdk.org/legal/gplv2+ce.html>. A list of the remaining third party components can be found at the following URL: <https://doc.castsoftware.com/imagingoncloud/open-source/>. All other components are Copyright © 2024 CAST S.A. All rights reserved. The CAST Imaging Analyzer is made available via the CAST Imaging website and, to the extent applicable to the End User, is governed either by: (i) the previously and mutually agreed CAST Imaging on Cloud Terms and Conditions as outlined in an executed agreement for the use of the Services; or (ii) by the CAST Imaging on Cloud Terms and Conditions available in electronic format at the URL:

<https://doc.castsoftware.com/imagingoncloud/legal/terms-conditions> if the End User is not in privity of contract with CAST. The terms and conditions described in (i) or (ii) above are collectively referred to as the “Terms and Conditions”. CAST grants the applicable End User a non-assignable, non-transferable, non-exclusive right to use the CAST Imaging Analyzer at no charge for the sole purpose of enabling the permitted use of the Services, as described in the corresponding Order, in the manner permitted by the applicable Terms and Conditions. The End User is granted the right to install and execute copies of the CAST Imaging Analyzer on any number of workstations owned or controlled by the End User and/or to distribute copies of the CAST Imaging Analyzer to third parties operating under its direction and control. As a condition of the foregoing grant, the End User must provide a copy of this CAST Imaging Analyzer End-User License Agreement (“CAST Imaging Analyzer EULA”) along with each copy of the CAST Imaging Analyzer that the End User distributes. The End User must not remove, alter, or obscure this CAST Imaging Analyzer EULA. All other use, reproduction, modification, distribution, or other exploitation of the CAST Imaging Analyzer is prohibited.

The grant of use of the CAST Imaging Analyzer will be automatically terminated (a) if the End User or third parties under its direction and control violate this CAST Imaging Analyzer EULA or (b) if the End User exceeds – or, where applicable, would cause the third party who placed the Order with CAST to exceed – the scope as outlined in the corresponding Order or (c) if the End User violates – or, where applicable, would cause the third party who placed the Order to violate – any of the applicable Terms and Conditions. In the event of termination of the rights contained herein, the End User shall immediately uninstall all copies of the CAST Imaging Analyzer on all equipment upon which the CAST Imaging Analyzer has been installed.

The CAST Imaging Analyzer is provided "AS IS" WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY of any kind, including completeness or fitness for a particular purpose, accuracy, or reliability, and CAST expressly disclaims any warranty with respect thereto. The End User expressly assumes all the risks thereof. In no event will CAST be liable for consequential, special, incidental, indirect damages, loss of profits or revenue, loss of use of data, disks, or programs, costs for recovering data. The End User recognizes that the CAST Imaging Analyzer may contain errors and that not all errors may be corrected at reasonable and sustainable cost, nor require correction. The End User is solely responsible for the download, installation, and use of the CAST Imaging Analyzer itself or by a third party under its direction and control on its or such third party's equipment, facilities, and network. Notwithstanding the above, CAST's liability for any direct damages resulting from End User's use of the CAST Imaging Analyzer as permitted herein shall not exceed, under any circumstances, the limitation of liability as outlined in the applicable Terms and Conditions.
